Mayor's Report

The Mayor handed out the State of the City Report. The state of the city continues to be good. Information included Financials, Public Safety, City Ordinance Codification, Public Health, City Services, Communications, Community Activities, and Beautification.

Looking Ahead: With this being his eighth and final year of his second term as Mayor, He now turns the gavel over to Mayor-elect Mike Brown. With his leadership, he knows the State of the City will continue to be good!

Council Focus

City Hall: Nancye Claypool reported people are continuing to use the Little Library in front of City Hall.

Infrastructure: Tom Nunn has two quotes for sidewalk repairs. He will take care of it after the new year. There was a gas leak on one of the street lights. L G & E will make the repair.

New Moves/Rentals: Doug Watson reported one house sold at 814 Beechwood Road and closed on December 19, 2022. There are no current listings in the city.

Fence/Building Permits: Mike Brown reported he had a resident ask about a permit for solar roofing. Metro handles those permits.

Drainage: George Langford reported that he cleared drains on November 25th.

Community Activities: Ed Purcell announced the winners of the Christmas Decorating Contest:
Brightest and Cutest: 4230 Alicent Road
Most Entertaining: 907 Ahland Road
Best Overall: 4250 Darbrook Road

Tom Nunn made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Doug Watson seconded the motion and all voted aye and the meeting adjourned at 7:29 p.m.

Attorney Matt Carey swore in Mike Brown as Mayor and new Council Member Melinda Breslin, as well as all current Council Members.

Respectfully submitted,

Pat Merrick, City Clerk

Larry Lewis, Mayor
