MAYOR'S REPORT/ANNOUNCEMENTS

- 2024 Kentucky League of Cities Legislative Update
  - Mayor Brown has a copy of the legislative update in City Hall if anyone wants to review.
- Change in Zoning Request for 4251 Westport Road
  - Mayor Brown passed out a letter announcing a public meeting regarding this request to take place on Tuesday, June 25, 2024, at the St. Matthews Eline Library located at 3940 Grandview Avenue. The request is to change the zoning from R-4 to O-R to build a doctor's office.
  - This is the house next to the nursing home on Westport Road. Mayor Brown believes the city should fight this zoning change because of concerns that commercial development will continue to be added down Westport Road.
- 2005 Crown Victoria
  - Mayor Brown thanked Councilmember Langford for helping to secure a buyer of the 2005 Crown Victorie. The vehicle will be sold for $1,222. The official papers have not been signed, but the mayor is confident the sale will move forward. The city needs to remove the shield, siren, and radio Staten before the sale can be finalized.
- Orchid Hill Light
  - Councilmember Cassaro reported that the light is not on, but all work has been completed in order for LG&E to repair the light. Mayor Brown stated that there was a second break in the line that the city was not aware of, but now that has been fixed and the light should be turned on soon.
- Small Banner Removal
  - Mayor Brown might try to attempt to move the small banners himself because they are in such poor condition. Councilmember Cassaro stated that it will likely require a bucket truck because of safety concerns.
- Illegal Fireworks
  - Mayor Brown reminded residents not to set off illegal fireworks in the city. He recommended that residents attend one of the numerous professional shows that take place throughout Louisville.
- Eline Realty Parking Lot
  - Ecotec did some small damage to the Eline Realty parking lot during junk pick up. Eline had a large amount of junk set out and Eco-tech had to return with a claw, which appears to have done the damage. Eco-tech is taking a look to see what repairs are needed.
- Jefferson County League of Cities Training

 KIPDA will present on grants and other opportunities at the JCLC meeting this Thursday, June 20, 2024, at Lyndon City Hall.

Permits

 Mayor Brown asked for the council's thoughts on posting approved permits to the website. All were in favor of this suggestion.

Parking Violations

Mayor Brown asked for thoughts on posting parking offenders in the mayor's monthly news since more complaints are starting to be submitted through that option on the new website. Mayor Brown received eight complaints about parking last week. Mr. Carey cautioned against taking this action.

City Forester

Mayor Brown introduced James Russell Bushong as the new city forester.
 The city has never had a forester before, and he will be working on the health of trees within the city.

New Business

• Mayor Brown introduced the new Police Chief, Rich Wilson. Chief Wilson introduced himself and stated that he had an extensive career in law enforcement and a passion for policing. He wants to be a resource for residents. He has relationships with the St. Matthews Police Department and Louisville Metro Police Department, specifically the 5th Division. Councilmember Langford stated that the Department, specifically the 3th Division. Mayor Brown stated that Chief feedback he has received has all been positive. Mayor Brown stated that Chief Wilson understands the expectation that he will not be sitting in his office but will be out in the community. Chief Wilson looks forward to stopping and meeting and visiting with residents. Following Chief Wilson's remarks, Mr. Carey swore him into office.

Committee Reports

Community Events

Councilmember Purcell reported that that the Fourth of July parade will be changed slightly to allow the route to go through more of the city. Residents can meet in the Eline Realty parking lot and the parade will end at city hall with hot dogs and ice cream. Councilmember Purcell asked for volunteers to assist with the event. Mayor Brown will send a Reach Alert reminder to help spread the word.

Let's Get Prepared

 Councilmember Langford thanked and congratulated the council after the last power outage. Councilmembers and other residents all stepped up to help each other. He also announced that June is National Safety Month, LGBTQ+ month, and this week includes the longest day of the year and the start of summer.

Fence and Building Permits

Councilmember Stoll stated that there were no permit applications to report.

New Moves/Rentals

Councilmember Watson reported two home sales in the city since the last meeting, 908 Beechwood Road closed on May 31, 6823 Green Meadow Circle closed on June 11. There is currently one active listing in the city, which is under contract.

Streets and Signs

- Councilmember Cassaro reported that the light on the east side of Walser has
- A Westport Terrace light stays on 24 hours a day and Councilmember Cassaro is working on getting that sensor repaired.
- Councilmember Cassaro is working on identifying and repairing potholes
- Mayor Brown mentioned adding an option to the website for reporting potholes.

Welcome Committee/City Hall/Little Library

 Councilmember Claypool reported being up to date on delivering welcome packets except for the two new house sales that were announced earlier in the meeting. She also stated that city hall was cleaned late in May and will be cleaned again in early July.

Councilmember Claypool asked for an update on the Air BNB at 6705 Green Meadow Circle. Mayor Brown stated that the Code Enforcement Officer contacted the property owner. Mayor Brown has not been contacted recently by the neighbors of the property. The CEO is on vacation, and Mayor Brown will ask for an update when he returns. Councilmember Stoll stated that she made a complaint to Louisville Metro about the Air BnB.

Councilmember Claypool asked for an update on the homes that are missing house numbers. Mayor Brown is going to ask the Police Chief to follow up with residents.

Councilmember Cassaro made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Councilmember Purcell seconded the motion. All voted in favor. The meeting adjourned at 8:13 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer Osborne, Clerk

Mike Brown, Mayor
